

Chambers

Global

2022

The leading lawyers and law firms globally

Trinidad & Tobago

How lawyers are ranked

Every year we carry out thousands of in-depth interviews with clients in order to assess the reputations and expertise of business lawyers worldwide. The qualities we look for (and which determine rankings) include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial awareness/astuteness, diligence, commitment, and other qualities most valued by the client.

Contents:

General Business Law p.2471
Leading Individuals p.2474

General Business Law

General Business Law	General Business Law: Dispute Resolution	Dispute Resolution: Senior Advocates
Leading Firms	Leading Individuals	Senior Statespeople
Band 1	Band 1	Senior Statespeople: distinguished older partners
Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan	Kangaloo Colin Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan *	Daly Martin MG Daly & Partners
M. Hamel-Smith & Co.	Morgan Mark Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan *	Denbow Claude Law Offices of Dr. Claude Denbow (ORL) ◇
Band 2	Walker Jonathan M. Hamel-Smith & Co.	Hamel-Smith Christopher M. Hamel-Smith & Co.
JD Sellier & Co	Band 2	Leading Silks
Johnson, Camacho & Singh	Byrne Adrian Byrne & Byrne (ORL) ◇	Band 1
MG Daly & Partners	Ferdinand Marcelle JD Sellier & Co	Martineau Russell Russell Martineau (Attorney at ORL) ◇
Pollonais, Blanc, de la Bastide & Jacelon	Mootoo Jason Jason Mootoo-Attorney at law (ORL) ◇	Mendes Douglas Chancery Chambers (ORL) ◇
Band 3	Singh Stephen A Johnson, Camacho & Singh	Peake Deborah Deborah Peake S.C (ORL) ◇
Dentons Delany	Band 3	Band 2
Hobsons Attorneys At Law	Bissessar Alana Pollonais, Blanc, de la Bastide & Jacelon	Armour Reginald Marie De Vere Chambers (ORL) ◇
Lex Caribbean	Dass Rishi Victoria Chambers (ORL) ◇	Benjamin Ian Bethany Chambers (ORL) ◇
Mair and Company	Mouttet Jon Paul Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith *	Fitzpatrick Alvin K. Alvin K. Fitzpatrick (ORL) ◇
Senior Statespeople	Pantin Gregory M. Hamel-Smith & Co.	Jairam Seenath Victoria Chambers (ORL) ◇
Senior Statespeople: distinguished older partners	Simonette Garvin Ignatius Chambers (ORL) ◇
Camacho Cecil W Johnson, Camacho & Singh	Up-and-coming individuals
Leading Individuals	Sieuchand Christopher MG Daly & Partners
Band 1
Ferreira-Aaron Nicole M. Hamel-Smith & Co.
Hamel-Smith Timothy M. Hamel-Smith & Co.
Julien Jo-Anne MG Daly & Partners
Miller Kurt Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan *
Band 2
Hamel-Smith M Glenn M. Hamel-Smith & Co.
Herrera Jeffrey Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan *
Laquis Mark Pollonais, Blanc, de la Bastide & Jacelon *
Mouttet Jon Paul Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith *
Band 3
Ali Ashmead Ashmead Ali & Co (ORL) ◇
Beckles Richard M. The Legal Consultancy (ORL) ◇
Inglefield Melissa M. Hamel-Smith & Co.
Regrello Mandisa Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith *
Sinanan Nicholas Johnson, Camacho & Singh
* Indicates individual with profile.
◇ (ORL) = Other Ranked Lawyer.
Alphabetical order within each band. Band 1 is highest.
Band 1
Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan
What the team is known for Fitzwilliam Stone is a regular fixture of large-scale transactional work in Trinidad & Tobago. It maintains a long-held position as one of the market's leading law firms and possesses one of the largest and most experienced teams of lawyers in the country. The firm advises on	a wide range of matters, including oil and gas M&A, foreign direct investment and corporate reorganizations. It also has considerable abilities in dispute resolution, with notable experience in construction cases as well as matters brought before the Tax Appeal Board.	heads the litigation team at Fitzwilliam Stone. He is particularly well known for his handling of high-value tax appeals and has an equally strong command of issues in the shipping and oil and gas sectors. "Mark is a very experienced, well-known litigator." Jeffrey Herrera (see p.2474) has wide-reaching capabilities in corporate structuring, including in regard to joint ventures and employee pension plans, and also regularly advises on mergers and acquisitions. He is especially well versed in the Trinidadian oil and gas sector. "He's a creative thinker and solution-oriented." Jon Paul Mouttet (see p.2474) is a popular figure in the Trinidadian market. He assists clients with a variety of commercial contracts and transactional issues, and is additionally well noted for his handling of high-value tax appeals and other contentious tax work. "He's involved in a lot of the firm's bigger transactions." "Jon Paul is a very good lawyer." Mandisa Regrello (see p.2474) is a well-known banking and finance lawyer who acts for a number of the leading financial services players in Trinidad & Tobago. Her practice encompasses the full gamut of issues in this space, including syndicated financings, debt restructuring and banking regulatory matters.
	Strengths Interviewees praise Fitzwilliam Stone as a "premier firm" which is capable of taking on "high-end, region-wide work."
	Notable practitioners
	Colin Kangaloo (see p.2474) has handled a large number of highly significant commercial litigation matters in Trinidad & Tobago. He is especially noted for his experience in high-value construction claims, and also handles a wide variety of employment, insurance and white-collar criminal cases. In addition to his abilities as an advocate, sources praise his keen strategic sense and in-depth understanding of the country's court system. "He has a good reputation."
	Kurt Miller (see p.2474) is the managing partner of Fitzwilliam Stone and also heads up its transactional department. He is a highly respected name in Trinidad's financial services arena, possessing a wealth of experience in bond issuances and syndicated loans, as well as securitisation mandates. "If there's a major financing, the chances are he'll be involved in it." "He has a strong reputation, is well recognised by the local banks and handles big-ticket financing work."
	Port of Spain-based Mark Morgan (see p.2474)
		M. Hamel-Smith & Co.
		What the team is known for M. Hamel-Smith & Co is one of the best-known law firms in the Caribbean, with a history in Trinidad stretching back to the early twentieth century. It is noted for handling highly significant litigation work, including shareholder disputes, tax appeals and insolvency proceedings. Its outstanding litigation capabilities are matched by its considerable transactional know-how; the firm has an excellent track record when it comes to major M&A, finance and capital markets matters. Interviewees have the highest praise for its work and consistently rate it as a leading name in the jurisdiction.

Strengths One source remarked that “the firm’s approach to matters is to understand client objectives and provide elegant, efficient solutions.”

Interviewees add that Hamel-Smith stands out for its “reputation, quality of advice, breadth of skill set and the diligence of key individuals with whom we interact.”

Work highlights Managing partner Nicole Ferreira-Aaron led a team acting for the Bristow Group on the Trinidad & Tobago aspects of a USD400 million issuance of senior secured notes.

Notable practitioners

Christopher Hamel-Smith SC is a respected lawyer in Trinidad with noteworthy expertise in intellectual property, financial services, telecoms and insurance disputes. He supports other members of the disputes team on numerous cases arising in these sectors and others, and is regularly called upon to sit as an arbitrator. “He’s one of the top names I would think of if I had to refer a client for any significant commercial litigation.” Managing partner Nicole Ferreira-Aaron is noted for her considerable expertise in aviation finance, representing an impressive list of clients in this field. Her broader practice spans a wide variety of financing agreements in addition to M&A transactions and capital markets issuances. She is based in Port of Spain. “She understands our business and sees the bigger picture. She imbues her approach with the pragmatism necessary to help our team get the deal done in an efficient manner.” Timothy Hamel-Smith is one of Trinidad & Tobago’s most experienced transactional lawyers, having overseen a large number of matters in the course of a career that spans close to five decades. He is well respected by his fellow professionals. “I found him to be very astute. He quickly understood the issues, got directly to the point and was able to give sound advice within a relatively short period of time.” Jonathan Walker leads the dispute and risk management group at Hamel-Smith, where he is regularly called upon to assist with some of Trinidad’s largest commercial disputes. He is well versed in High Court litigation and appellate proceedings, with experience covering areas such as contractual disputes, insurance claims and constitutional law proceedings. “He is a very pragmatic individual who understands the legal issues but is also able to communicate them very effectively.” “His ability to be both forthright and reachable is much appreciated.” Port of Spain-based Glenn Hamel-Smith heads the banking and finance practice at Hamel-Smith. He regularly advises on revolving credit facilities and acts for an impressive list of commercial lenders. He is also notable for his debt capital markets practice and has additional expertise in rights issuances, M&A and restructuring matters. Melissa Inglefield advises on an array of finance transactions and capital markets issuances. Her name is well known to fellow professionals, who judge her to be one of Trinidad’s most impressive younger lawyers. “Melissa presents complicated concepts and structures in an easily digestible format.” “I found her to be very accessible. She offered alternative approaches in dealing with issues and also provided solid technical advice.” Gregory Pantin is a respected disputes lawyer in Trinidad &

Tobago. He has a range of experience spanning trade and employment cases as well as personal injury disputes. He is well known in the market as a sound choice to handle both litigation and arbitration. “He’s got a very laid-back and relaxed advocacy style – people like working with him.”

Band 2

JD Sellier & Co

What the team is known for Sources acknowledge JD Sellier & Co for its particularly large market share in Trinidad & Tobago when it comes to intellectual property matters. In this field, the firm is regularly sought out to assist with trade mark filings and has further expertise in opposition proceedings. The disputes team is equally highly praised for its efficiency, as well as its ability to take on complex and highly contentious proceedings. Real estate transactions are a further strength of the firm; its lawyers are regularly mandated on sales, acquisitions, mortgages and leasing.

Strengths One source described working with the firm as “a positive experience,” adding: “I would recommend anyone seeking legal advice in Trinidad to contact JD Sellier.”

Commentators state that JD Sellier is one of the law firms which is “consistently at the forefront in terms of complex and demanding litigation.”

Notable practitioners

Marcelle Ferdinand is managing partner at JD Sellier and also heads the litigation team. Her recent workload has included significant construction and employment matters, although her experience also extends to medical negligence claims and shipping disputes. She is based in Port of Spain. “She’s extremely well organised and efficient. She knows how to structure things in order to make the best use of everybody’s time.” “Marcelle does a fantastic job of managing that office.”

Johnson, Camacho & Singh

What the team is known for Johnson, Camacho & Singh (JCS) is a respected law firm which represents multinational and domestic clients in a range of practice areas, including project finance, M&A and construction. It is noted for having one of the leading conveyancing practices in Trinidad & Tobago, and for its regular involvement in major cross-border disputes. Recent transactional highlights have included assisting with the Trinidadian elements of multi-jurisdictional mergers in the financial services and insurance sectors. Sources respect the lawyers at JCS for their high levels of business acumen and broad range of experience in large-scale mandates.

Strengths One commentator noted that JCS handles “a lot of the major transactions” in Trinidad & Tobago.

Notable practitioners

Consultant attorney Cecil Camacho is one of the most respected lawyers in Trinidad & Tobago. He has an outstanding reputation and is viewed as a leading authority on finance agreements, restructuring, capital markets issuances and M&A. “Cecil is a very talented lawyer.” Stephen Singh has a very strong reputation in the Trinidadian dispute resolution sphere, handling both litigation and arbitration. He acts on a multitude of cases, including oil and gas and construction matters, with further expertise in real estate, tax and insolvency disputes. “He’s a bright guy and has experience handling some fairly weighty cross-border disputes.” “He offers intellectual firepower and creative input.” Nicholas Sinanan heads the transactional team at Johnson, Camacho & Singh. He is an ever-more notable figure within Trinidad’s legal profession, offering considerable experience relating to capital markets issuances and finance transactions. “I respect him a lot. He’s a great guy who is good to work with.”

MG Daly & Partners

What the team is known for MG Daly & Partners is a well-established Trinidadian law firm whose highly experienced attorneys are well respected throughout the business and legal communities. The team as a whole maintains an excellent reputation among commentators, who applaud its deep-seated expertise in litigation and especially strong track record in employment as well as constitutional and public law disputes. On the non-contentious side, the team is regularly mandated on conveyancing matters and represents a number of major real estate developers. It also advises on high-profile M&A transactions, with noteworthy experience acting on private equity buyouts.

Strengths A fellow lawyer acknowledged: “I have a lot of respect for that firm.”

Notable practitioners

Martin Daly SC is one of Trinidad’s most experienced and respected advocates. Sources in the market hold him in very high esteem, consistently rating him as a lawyer who has the ability to take on highly complex and novel disputes. In recent years he has been particularly noted for his handling of high-value insurance and financial services matters. Jo-Anne Julien acts on a variety of M&A, financing and commercial contract matters, and is also well known for her flourishing conveyancing practice. She is a popular figure among the business community of Trinidad & Tobago, with positions on several company boards. “Jo-Anne is very well respected in the country.” Christopher Sieuchand draws praise for his accomplished handling of sophisticated commercial litigation proceedings. Based in Port of Spain, his experience extends to cases brought before the Supreme Court and Privy Council as well as claims for constitutional relief. “He’s made a name for himself as someone you’d go to if a case is quite technical and challenging.” “I’ve always been impressed by his attention to detail and quick mind.”

Pollonais, Blanc, de la Bastide & Jacelon

What the team is known for Pollonais Blanc is a well-regarded law firm which is often singled out for its strong resources in conveyancing and related matters, such as property purchases and real estate development. With a strong foothold in the Trinidad market, the firm is also well versed in banking and finance transactions as well as joint ventures and mergers. Other recent highlights include advising on ship mortgages and the administration of high net worth estates. The firm is additionally noted for its solid dispute resolution offering, which is particularly active on medical and professional negligence matters.

Strengths Commentators depict Pollonais Blanc as a firm which is “very prominent in the market.”

Notable practitioners

Mark Laquis (see p.2474) is the managing partner of Pollonais Blanc. He has a long-established reputation as one of Trinidad's most capable and prolific conveyancing attorneys. He complements his expertise in this arena with a wide range of related real estate work, regularly advising on mortgages and leasing in addition to property sales and acquisitions.

"Mark Laquis is highly respected in the conveyancing field." "I found him to be very astute and responsive."

Alana Bissessar leads the dispute resolution department at Pollonais Blanc and is well respected by her peers. She has a particular focus on medical and professional negligence matters and personal injury litigation, representing clients such as health boards and insurance companies as well as individual medical, legal and financial services professionals. She is based in Port of Spain. "She's a capable senior practitioner with a lot of experience."

Band 3

Dentons Delany

What the team is known for Dentons has a growing presence in Trinidad & Tobago, with its team of lawyers on the ground regularly working alongside colleagues based in Barbados and across the firm's wider network in the Commonwealth Caribbean. The firm counsels household-name clients from sectors as diverse as pharmaceuticals, retail and technology on a broad array of regulatory matters. In addition, it is well placed to assist with M&A, finance and litigation mandates.

Work highlights A team led by Barbados-based Dustin Delany advised the Trinidadian arm of FedEx on a wide variety of labour, employment and tax issues.

Notable practitioners

Shalini Campbell is Trinidad managing partner, with Barbados-based Dustin Delany a key point of contact for Dentons' wider Caribbean offering.

Hobsons Attorneys At Law

What the team is known for Hobsons is widely regarded as the leading law firm in Trinidad & Tobago's second city of San Fernando, where it has an impressive market share. It is well known for its considerable experience in the oil and gas industry, as well as its frequent handling of finance transactions and conveyancing matters. The firm also regularly represents clients in litigation.

Strengths Interviewees agree that Hobsons is the "leading firm in the south of the country" and "pretty much dominant in terms of the San Fernando market."

Notable practitioners

San Fernando-based Romney Thomas and Barendra Sinanan are the main points of contact.

Lex Caribbean

What the team is known for Lex Caribbean has a capable transactional practice which advises on group restructuring, M&A and a range of other matters. Its litigation department keeps equally busy, with insolvency, labour and real estate cases among its recent areas of focus. International and domestic financial institutions are an important part of the firm's client base. The team in Trinidad & Tobago maintains a close working relationship with the firm's Barbados office, the two groups regularly working together on large-scale, cross-border transactions and disputes.

Notable practitioners

Key client contacts include Bernard Shepherd and Bronock Reid, both of whom are based in Port of Spain.

Mair and Company

What the team is known for Mair and Company is a compact law firm which is often noted for the considerable experience of its senior lawyers. It is particularly highlighted for the strength of its litigation practice, which offers a wealth of expertise in construction and financial services disputes, as well as labour and employment matters. In addition to litigation, the team is able to provide guidance on an array of non-contentious issues, including trade mark filing, syndicated loans, real estate acquisitions and company formations. Interviewees also draw attention to the firm's in-depth knowledge of energy matters.

Notable practitioners

Port of Spain-based Samuel Harrison is the main point of contact.

Other Ranked Lawyers

Ashmead Ali is a veteran lawyer in Port of Spain whose practice has a strong focus on conveyancing work. Interviewees highlight his many years' experience and regard him as a good choice for property-related issues. "He's somebody you can trust and who will do a good job." "Ashmead has been around a long time and in terms of his competence he is well up there."

Richard Beckles is the principal of Port of Spain boutique The Legal Consultancy. His work has a strong focus on oil and gas matters, including project finance agreements, and he regularly acts for the Trinidad & Tobago government and its state-owned entities on such matters. "He's a very bright guy and a very good lawyer."

Sources admire Adrian Byrne for his tenacity and the high quality of his work. He is known for his many years' experience in commercial litigation matters and frequent handling of high-stakes cases. He has further experience in arbitration, with recent experience acting for clients on construction disputes. He is based in Port of Spain. "Adrian Byrne is very impressive." "He is incredibly well known and respected."

Rishi Dass is increasingly hailed as one of the most promising younger advocates in Trinidad & Tobago. He has a wide-ranging practice which sees him take on constitutional cases and public interest litigation in addition to general commercial matters. "He's a formidable junior who is expected to rise through the profession."

Jason Mootoo is rated highly by commentators and is regularly instructed on high-profile cases. His experience encompasses disputes ranging from employment and white-collar crime to significant construction matters. He is based in Port of Spain. "Jason has the relaxed authority that comes with complete mastery of his field. I have the highest opinion of him." "He's very, very good at breaking things down in a way that anyone can understand. I certainly recommend him to anyone looking for an advocate."

Garvin Simonette is a notable dispute resolution lawyer who regularly advises international law firms on issues of Trinidad & Tobago law. He is particularly well versed in debt recovery and insolvency matters. "He's an incredibly experienced lawyer."

Reginald Armour SC frequently appears on high-level disputes in Trinidad and throughout the English-speaking Caribbean. He is especially well versed in the representation of government entities and officials. In addition to his appearances as an advocate, he is also well known for his role as chair of the pan-regional Council of Legal Education.

Ian Benjamin SC has a broad-ranging practice that sees him represent clients in insolvency, tax, insurance and construction disputes, as well as a variety of other matters both in Trinidad & Tobago and across the Commonwealth Caribbean. "He's got an amazing advocacy style. He is the master of his brief and is extremely dynamic."

Claude Denbow SC is a highly experienced advocate with a long-standing reputation as one of Trinidad's most astute legal minds. He is particularly noted as an authority on contentious tax issues, with additional expertise in financial services and insolvency matters. "Claude is a quite brilliant man and well regarded."

Alvin Fitzpatrick SC is a respected Trinidadian silk who maintains a considerable reputation in construction disputes, in addition to being regularly called upon to handle an array of high-stakes matters in other fields. He is well known for his powers of advocacy as well as his skill in cross-examination. "He's a very impressive individual."

Port of Spain-based Seenath Jairam SC has an impressive regional practice, highlights of which include significant cases against government entities and oil supermajors. He has further expertise in trusts and estates disputes.

Russell Martineau SC is a respected advocate in Trinidad & Tobago and consistently receives the highest accolades. His well-established practice regularly sees him represent clients in high-stakes multi-jurisdictional matters. White-collar criminal litigation and major contractual disputes in the oil and gas sector feature among his recent caseload. "He demonstrated a high quality of work and resourcefulness, and displayed his expertise and advocacy skills in the courtroom."

Douglas Mendes SC has an impressive profile in the jurisdiction through his position as immediate past president of the Law Association of Trinidad & Tobago. He maintains a very strong reputation and is held in high esteem by instructing solicitors. Recent highlights of his practice include major breach of contract, construction and clinical negligence cases. "His reputation is excellent."

Deborah Peake SC is universally respected by instructing solicitors, who consistently cite her as one of Trinidad's leading advocates. She takes on a varied caseload, which of late has included high-profile construction and oil and gas cases. She has further noteworthy experience relating to major insolvency, environmental and constitutional law claims. "She is the definition of relentless. She's quite the formidable opponent." "She is probably the best advocate in the country."

Leaders' Profiles in Trinidad & Tobago

HERRERA, Jeffrey

Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan, Port of Spain
jjh@fitzwilliamstone.com

Featured in General Business Law (Trinidad & Tobago)

Practice Areas: Jeffrey represents a wide variety of business clients across multiple sectors including upstream and downstream petroleum, petrochemicals, shipping, metallics, manufacturing, contracting, marketing and distribution as well as banking and insurance. His main areas of practice are Commercial; Corporate; Oil and Gas; Employment and Pensions; and Admiralty.

Career: Partner: Commercial/Tax/Admiralty Admitted: England and Wales, Trinidad and Tobago-1982

Professional Memberships: Honourable Society of Gray's Inn; Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago

Personal: Born: April 16, 1957 University of Nottingham, England (LL.B. Hons.) Inns of Court School of Law, England (Barrister)

KANGALOO, Colin

Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan, Port of Spain
(868) 623-1618

ckangaloo@fitzwilliamstone.com

Practice Areas: Colin practices as an Advocate Attorney and handles diverse areas of civil law practice including corporate/commercial; securities regulation; insurance; land matters; administrative law; proceeds of crime/money laundering matters construction law and employment. He regularly represents clients in the High Court of Justice and the Court of Appeal; and has appeared before the Privy Council. He also appears as Counsel in arbitrations and before Commissions of Enquiry such as the Commission of Enquiry into the Construction Sector of Trinidad and Tobago and the Commission of Enquiry into the Collapse of CL Financial Ltd. et al representing clients which have included inter alia the Attorney General and a multi-national accounting firm.

Career: Colin sat as a Temporary Judge of the High Court of Justice of Trinidad and Tobago from September 2007 to April 2008. He also served as a member of the Disciplinary Committee of the Law Association from 2003 to 2007.

Personal: He tutored at the Hugh Wooding Law School for 20 years in the area of Trial Advocacy, and is passionate about the traditions and responsibilities of the Legal Profession and committed to ensuring that these continue and are passed on to the younger members of the Profession.

LAQUIS, Mark

Pollonais, Blanc, de la Bastide & Jacelon, Port of Spain
+1 868 623 1515 ext 208

m.laquis@polanc.com

Featured in General Business Law (Trinidad & Tobago)

Practice Areas: Property and Estates Corporate and Commercial

Career: Mark is primarily a conveyancing and real property Attorney but has gained experience in many areas of commercial practice such as large mergers and acquisitions and tax related matters. He joined the firm of Pollonais & Blanc in 1994 and he has a wide range of experience in real estate transactions including care and control of property transactions, drawing and completing transactions such as conveyances, assignments, leases, mortgages, chattel mortgages, bills of sales, debentures and matters incidental thereto. He also is involved in probate matters including advising on estate planning. Mark also has a great deal of experience with commercial matters and is a great asset to any transaction due to his extensive knowledge of the legal aspects of tax matters and deal structures.

Professional Memberships: Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago Former Management Committee Member of the Council of the Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago; Former Management Committee Member of the Trinidad and Tobago Game Fishing Association; Former Secretary - Fatima Old Boys Association; Director - Anthony P. Scott k Co. Limited; Director - Park Plaza Limited Director - Vita's House Ltd

Personal: The Queens Park Oval Power Boats Mutual Facilities Tailenders Club

MILLER, Kurt

Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan, Port of Spain
868 623 1618

kmiller@fitzwilliamstone.com

Featured in General Business Law (Trinidad & Tobago)

Practice Areas: Managing Partner and Head of the Firm's Commercial Department with specialisation in finance, banking, corporate/commercial. Principal focus is commercial finance transactions, structured credit transactions, leveraged lending transactions, sovereign and commercial bond issues, mergers and acquisitions and securitisation transactions. Represents domestic and international financial, governmental and commercial entities.

Career: Admitted to practice in Trinidad and Tobago and Jamaica in 1986 and 1991 respectively. Partner 1992; Managing Partner 2015.

Professional Memberships: Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago.

Personal: Born June 17, 1963. Educated at University of the West Indies, LLB Honours, 1984; Norman Manley Law School, Legal Education Certificate, 1986.

MORGAN, Mark

Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan, Port of Spain
(868) 623-1610

mmorgan@fitzwilliamstone.com

Featured in General Business Law (Trinidad & Tobago)

Practice Areas: Principal focus is on complex commercial litigation, oil and gas, tax and large scale industrial investment in Trinidad and Tobago. Represents major investors, financial institutions, industrial, commercial, energy and shipping concerns.

Career: Partner 1986; Litigation Head 1998.

Professional Memberships: Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago; Gray's Inn London; Association of International Petroleum Negotiators.

Publications: Local contributor to Chambers Oil&Gas (2018), international texts on legal professional privilege (2017), tax (2004), insolvency (2004) and libel (1992). Legal correspondent for the Business Guardian (2004-07).

Personal: Born September 25, 1958. LLB (Hons) Liverpool University 1981; Barrister England 1982, Trinidad and Tobago 1983.

MOUTTET, Jon Paul

Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan, Port of Spain
+1 868 623 1618

jpmouttet@fitzwilliamstone.com

Featured in General Business Law (Trinidad & Tobago)

Practice Areas: Primary focus in energy, petroleum, industrial greenfield projects and tax. Other areas of practice involve commercial and corporate work (including joint ventures, mergers, acquisitions and divestments) and advising on environmental, safety, health and other industry related regulatory regimes.

Career: Partner - Commercial /Tax. Admitted: 2005.

Professional Memberships: Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago, Association of International Petroleum Negotiators.

Publications: Co-Author: Chambers and Partners, Energy, Oil & Gas 2019, Trinidad and Tobago; The Oil and Gas Law Review, 6th Edition, Trinidad and Tobago

Personal: Born February 3, 1981. UWI (LLB Hons), Sir Hugh Wooding Law School (LEC), King's College London (LLM).

REGRELO, Mandisa

Fitzwilliam, Stone, Furness-Smith & Morgan, Port of Spain

868 623 1618

mregrelo@fitzwilliamstone.com

Featured in General Business Law (Trinidad & Tobago)

Practice Areas: Commercial attorney specializing in aviation regulatory matters; and banking and finance transactions: debt restructuring, new financings, syndicated loans, bond and equity financing and associated regulatory, crystallization, enforcement and priorities issues arising from such transactions.

Career: Admitted to practice in Trinidad and Tobago: 2003. Partner: 2011. University of Cambridge, LLM, 2008; Hugh Wooding Law School, LEC Merit, 2003, University of the West Indies, First Class Honours, 2001

Professional Memberships: Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago
Publications: Trinidad and Tobago Chapter, McBain (eds.), Aircraft Finance: Registration, Security and Enforcement (Sweet & Maxwell, 2018)

Personal: Executive Member: St. Augustine Girls' High School Alumnae